

Our House Specialty Cocktail Menu

Hey ladies!! Is there anything sexier than an IRISH FIREFIGHTER at the end of a grueling 24 hour shift. After a long night (or two that blur together) there's nothing better than a Hendrick's Gin Bloody Mary – $7

I once had a neighbor who was not all that bright. He actually took a pair of barber's shears to his dog to try and cure his hangover. Our HAIR OF THE DOG is a whole lot tastier than a mouthful of fur. An Absolut Pepper vodka Bloody Mary will help bring you back to equilibrium after a late night at the beach bars – $6

The Lumina Pavilion at Wrightsville Beach opened in 1905 and was the center of action on the island for almost 70 years until its final demise in 1973. Although we can't quite be sure, we have heard rumors that the favorite beverage during the prohibition era was the WRIGHTSVILLE BEACH COSMOPOLITAN made with Absolut Vodka, Cranberry Juice, a splash of Sour Miix and a floater of Gran Marnier – $8

After SCARLETT O'HARA had her baby, she decided she was no longer going to sleep with her husband. To deal with her pent up frustration, she turned to her favorite libation containing Southern Comfort, Cranberry juice and lime squeeze. – $6

After Scarlett cut him off, RHETT BUTLER immediately turned to Jack Daniels on the rocks with a splash of cranberry and a lime squeeze. – $6

The Royal Navy once gave its sailors a ration of a half gallon a week of rum. I guess anything to keep the boys happy. While our RUM RUNNER is not quite a half gallon, it is made with plenty including Bacardi light rum, Myers dark rum, Malibu coconut rum, pineapple, orange and cranberry juices. – $8

Our Hispanic prep cooks and dishwashers are some of the hardest working and most honest people I have ever met. They follow in the footsteps of our immigrant grandparents and great grandparents with the same work ethic and desire for the American Dream. To celebrate and honor the Hispanic heritage of our newest immigrants, we offer you the PRIMO MARGARITA from south of the border made with Patron Silver, Patron Cintronge, Sour Mix and a splash of Orange Juice. – $8

There once was a local girl who loved to hang out at the beach bars until all hours of the morning each night. She developed such a reputation around Wrightsville Beach that she soon earned the nickname DIRTY SHIRLEY. However, the name is not necessarily as bad as you might think. Instead of being nicknamed for steamy after bar activities, she actually earned the name for the adult Shirley Temples she liked to drink with Grey Goose Vodka, Sprite & a splash of Grenadine – $7

Sweet and Savory is the official football game watching headquarters for the Virginia Tech Hokies, winners of 4 of the last 7 ACC football championships. Our owner is also a Hokie, so we asked him the question everyone always asks – “What’s a Hokie?” Well, according to legend, a Hokie is a made up name from the 1890’s that was plugged into a fight song that went “Hokie, Hokie, Hokie high, Tech, Tech VPI.” Our HOKIE SHOOTER is made with Wild Turkey, Amaretto & Pineapple Juice– $6

Lady Godiva's husband once said that he'd stop taxes if she would ride naked through town. So she ordered all shutters to be closed on the day of her ride. Everyone complied with the order except for a man who later became known as Peeping Tom. To gather her courage for her naked ride through town, she first visited her favorite watering hole where legend has it she ordered up a CHOCOLATE MARTINI made with Godivia White and Dark Chocolate Liqueur, Stoli Vanilla and a splash of Frangelica – $8

Once filled with promise after winning the PGA Championship in 1991 and the British Open in 1995, JOHN DALY chose a hard partying path. To honor this long hitter and the anti-country club crowd we bring you our cocktail with Seagram's Sweet Tea Vodka and Pink Lemonade – $6

The idea for this unique style of presentation of adult beverages was actually borrowed from a small little bar in the Haight-Ashbury district of San Francisco called the Alembic. With the center of hippie culture on our minds, we offer you the WAKE AND BAKE martini containing Kahlua, Stoli Vanilla and a splash of Baileys Irish Cream -- $8

THURSDAY SPECIAL – ALL HOUSE SPECIALTY COCKTAILS $1 OFF